
Standard Letter - Deceased Holder

Dear Sirs,

Estate of deceased

We refer to your letter dated (ref)
and list below details of the holding in our records in the name of the above deceased.

Holding as at date of death on was as follows:

<input type="text"/>	fully paid shares on our	<input type="text"/>	register
<input type="text"/>	partly paid shares on our	<input type="text"/>	register

Dividends

There were no dividends declared but unpaid as at the date of death.

There were no dividends or interest payments outstanding as at the date of death.

The following dividends have been paid since 1 July .

Date Paid	Unfranked Amount	Withholding Tax Deducted	Franked Amount	Imputation Tax Credit Amount
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

Details of our requirements prior to any dealings in these securities being permitted are enclosed for your assistance.

We point out that legislation and regulations relating to capital gains tax state that the onus is on the securityholder to keep all relevant records regarding their investments. Accordingly, it is suggested that these details be obtained from the records of the deceased.

We have noted our records to forward future correspondence to care of the above address as requested.

Yours faithfully